Superb Sculptured Group Will Exalt Pioneer Mother at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition

THE women of the pioneer era will be exalted in the Pioneer Mother Monument, the work of Charles Grafty, one of America's foremost sculptors, which will be shown at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. This monument in bronze is designed to perpetuate a spirit of love and veneration for the women who crossed the plains and amid the hardships of pioneer life faithfully played their parts in the settlement and civilization of the west of America. In its sincerity and simplicity this work is a worthy homage to the courageous women of the past generation. A large part of the cost of the statue was borne by the school children of California, who contributed their pennies.

CHRISTMAS EVE DANCE WILL BE GIVEN AT THE
NATIONAL GUARD ARMORY

Plans are complete for the Christmas eve dance of the Kamehameha

An attractive feature will be the special modern ball-room dances to be given by Miss Carol Low, who has recently returned from the mainland.
A big crowd is looked for tonight.
The proceeds go toward the Kameha-meha day celebration.

MASQUERADE BALL AT
SKATING RINK TONIGHT

The management of the Honolulu skating rink has made elaborate plans for a big time tonight, in the way of a masquerade ball on skates.
Special music has been arranged for and the goodly crowd is expected.
There will be prizes for the winning costumes. These prizes have been on display in the window of Wichman's jewelry store for the past few days and are well worth trying for, being all of a high class nature.

SAVED HIS MONEY AND KEPT HIS EYES
WIDE OPEN

ANDREW CARNEGIE,

The Man Who Saved.

What may be counted Mr. Carnegie's first real investment was in the sleeping car, the model of which was shown him while he was a young man.
He made a small investment and reaped a big benefit.

Mr. Carnegie was a rich man before he became interested in steel. He grew rich because he always planned to have a little money put aside when opportunities for investment were offered. How much have you put aside?
Nothing? Better get started right now.

Remember that your savings now means leisure in the future. Get rid of the idea that you have no faculty for saving. Bring a dollar here tomorrow and open an account.
